Spotlight on...

THE FRENCH ROOM

1321 Commerce St., Dallas • 214-742-8200

The French Room, decorated beautifully under an elaborate vaulted ceiling and crystal chandeliers in the historic Adolphus Hotel, features a menu rich in fresh seasonal ingredients from Executive Chef Jason Weaver. From beef tenderloin with a black truffle-potato terrine to miso-marinated Alaskan halibut with baby shiitake and sweet potatoes in carrot ginger sauce, The French Room will leave you with an everlasting impression. For dessert try the soufflé of the day. Also enjoy the extensive wine list that has earned Wine Spectator's Award of Excellence. The French Room is formal, so come as your best!

THE SHAG LOUNGE

830 15th St., Denver • 303-597-7424

Denver's hottest new nightspot. Mid-century inspired décor highlights this new martini bar. With affordable sandwiches and drinks, you can't go wrong. All sandwiches are very reasonable at $5.99 and come served in an old-style metal lunchbox complete with pickle spear, chips and a treat. The Shag Lounge features signature martinis and tiki drinks. Martinis, tiki drinks and cocktails are available every night. No cover charge, happy hour every day, $3 wine and domestic draft. Enjoy the nice patio area.

DENVER MARRIOTT CITY CENTER

1701 California St. • 303-297-1300

Three blocks from the Colorado Convention Center is Denver Marriott City Center, blending Marriott's tradition of service excellence and amenities with a cosmopolitan flair. The hotel offers 601 guest rooms, concierge service, internet access, a business center, full-service health club, an indoor pool, sauna, 24 conference rooms and 25,000 square feet of meeting space. For onsite dining, there's Allie's American Grille and the D-Spot Lounge.
